Welcome to our May Newsletter!

Love my bus

Children in both classes recently enjoyed attending a presentation by Stacey from Love my bus. The children learned more about how bus travel can benefit wider society and our planet.

John Muir Award

The pupils in P5-7 have been working towards the John Muir Award. Mrs Irvine has worked with pupils on exploring and conserving the school grounds. The children have recently been building hedgehog homes!

P7 Activities

The P7s have enjoyed attending Ellon Academy for a Values Day as part of their transition. They have also recently been enjoying some activities days with Mrs Baillie and Mrs Dew.

Gardening Award

Congratulations to Mrs Dew and the Gardening group for achieving Level 1 in the Royal Horticultural Society School Gardening Awards. A lot of hard work has gone into this award!

Bikeability

Mrs Irvine and Mrs Baillie have been working with P7 to practise their newly acquired skills in bikeability training, following a recent training course. Well done to all those who took part!

Health Group

The school Health group have been working on organising a Health Week for all pupils in Tipperty School in June. Activities planned include a curling tournament, tennis, mindfulness and relaxation activities. The children look forward to updating you on Health Week in the next newsletter.

Eco Group

The school Eco group have been working this term on updating their Eco

Code. The group have chosen an apple theme, inspired by the planting of the Red Devil apple tree at Tipperty School for the Jubilee. The new Eco Code is pictured below.

SSPCA

Both classes recently took part in an Animal Adventures workshop with the SSPCA. The children had the opportunity to think about animal emotions and the actions to take if they find an animal in distress.

Red Nose Day

The pupils were delighted to receive a donation of Red Nose Day merchandise from Sainsburys. Pictured are the children with some of the merchandise. Thank you to everyone at Sainsburys!

Seesaw

Tipperty School is pleased to once more be using the Seesaw app. This app gives pupils and teachers the chance to share learning with families. Please contact the School Office if you need a reminder of the joining instructions. Please note that the private messaging function is currently not in use, in accordance with Aberdeenshire guidelines recently received.
